Mark Purmort New Overseer Local Grange

Mark E. Purmort, Santa Cruz road rancher and poultryman, was elected overseer of the Orchard City grange to fill the place left vacant by Leland Jones, at a regular meeting of the lodge Tuesday night, at which Lawrence Hendricks, worthy master, presided.

Mrs. Rose Hanger was elected to fill the position of the goddess, Pomona. Installation of these two officers will take place at a future meeting.

Several guests were welcomed to the meeting Tuesday; they included A. A. Martin, master of the Santa Clara County Pomona grange, Glenn Cleveland, master of the Gilroy grange, and several other visitors from the Sunnyvale and Gilroy granges.

Mr. Martin addressed the Grange members on the importance for farmers of lowering their overhead costs. He cited many cases which proved that the modern orchardist has increased his standard of living so much that it would be difficult to make a profit large enough to cover all overhead expenses. Mr. Martin suggested that orchardists might rely less on irrigation, which, he said, was expensive, perhaps does not improve the crops in the long run, and is causing the county water supply to run dangerously low.

Mr. Cleveland, who gave a short talk to the Grangers, stated that farmers might improve their situation if they produced a uniformly good product.

Various grange committee members reported at Tuesdays meeting. Frank Benson, of the taxation committee, W. T. Hobson, of the cooperation committee, Harry Mitchell of the legislation committee, and Mrs. Harry Mitchell of the home economics committee, spoke briefly.

After the business meeting refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. Leroy Anderson.

Query Wins One And Loses One In Tilt With S. C.

Last Wednesday night at the high school gymnasium the local Query club's first string took Santa Clara alumni basketeers for a ride, 46-42. In a five-minute play-off period Campbell stacked up the winning points.

The box score:

Santa Clara	ft	fg	tl	Campbell	fg	ft	tl
Withey c	0	1	2	Robinson c	0	8	16
L. Quetano f	0	6	12	Eddlemon f	0	3	6
Condensa f	3	7	17	Murty f	0	7	14
W. Silva g	1	2	5	Gray g	1	2	5
E. Silva g	0	2	4	Gorman g	3	1	5
M. Quetano g	0	1	2
Totals	4	18	42	Totals	4	21	46

The second team, on the other hand, was not so successful, the final score being 18-22 in favor of the visitors. A shortage of players on the Santa Clara squad made it necessary to use their first string over again. M. Murty also played for Campbell, supported by V. Murty, Nunes, Prout, Rose, Gomes and

Campbell's Championship Basketball Teams Are Reviewed by Local Fan

By Carl Field

Campbell Union High school basketball teams have just completed the most successful season in the athletic history of the school. Playing in the Santa Clara Valley Athletic league composed of Mountain View, Fremont, Santa Clara, Live Oak, Los Gatos and Campbell, our local boys won the undisputed championship in both the unlimited and 130-lb. divisions. Both teams were coached by Ralph E. Noddin, who deserves a world of credit for the developement of team play and high morale as shown in the teams' fighting ability to come from behind to win, and also for the high degree of real sportsmanship shown by both teams. The unlimited record for the season is as follows:

Unlimiteds

Campbell	26	Mt. View	21
Campbell	28	Los Gatos	18
Campbell	32	Fremont	19
Campbell	18	Live Oak	11
Campbell	34	Santa Clara	11
Campbell	15	Los Gatos	16
Campbell	23	Mt. View	40
Campbell	26	Fremont	18
Campbell	30	Live Oak	27
Campbell	47	Santa Clara	12
Total Campbell	279	Opponents	193

That gives Campbell a league record of 8 wins and 2 losses. In outside games they won from San Jose, Bellarmine, Pacific Grove, Salinas and lost to Sequoia and San Mateo. The squad was composed of Cook, Buccelato, Bollinger, Stojanovich, and Pilgrim, forwards; Captain Pryor, Persons and Johansson, centers; Hocking, Ruscigno, Tedesco, Hall and Andrews, guards. Richard Morton was their energetic student manager. Only six men will be lost by graduation this year Buccelato, Bollinger, Ruscigno, Pilgrim, Johansson and Hall, so the prospects are very good for 1934.

The individual scores of the six men that played most were Pryor, 109; Bollinger, 30; Cook, 107; Buccelato, 90; Ruscigno, 17 and Hocking, 17. Cook and Hocking were out of several games with injuries and were badly missed, but their subs came through in fine shape.

This team was not essentially a clever team at the start of the season, but rather won their games on sheer will to win and by agressive playing. By the latter part of the season their entire play had improved and they were looking better in every game.

Discussing the players individually: Captain Fran. Pryor, a very strong defensive center who also scored well and played in every game. Byron Bollinger, a tall, rangy forward who specialized in passing but scored at the time scores were needed. He had the misfortune of not developing until his senior year. Butch Buccelato, one of the most uncanny long shots ever turned out here. He went to guard when Hocking was out; his scoring will be missed next year. Red Ruscigno, a strong, rugged guard, hard to get around and always playing a dependable game. He will be hard to replace. Fred Hocking, the class of all the guards in the league; recovered well from the backboard, worked the ball up well and played a sweet defensive game. He had the ability to break up the oppoonents play before it got started. In choosing an "all-star" league team he would be my first choice for guard and he would also captain the team. He has one more year to play. Murray Cook, one of the best forwards Campbell has ever turned out, and also the most effective forward in the league at present. Fifteen years old, six feet tall and only a sophomore. If he works hard on his game and takes care of himself he should be a whiz next year. Red missed several games when he broke his arm, but he came back strong when he got back in the line-up. Deceptive floor play and accuracy on "sucker shots" were Cook's best assets.

It is always open season on choosing "all-star" teams, so I will take a crack at it. If you don't like it, your guess is good as mine. Here it is: Perusa, Fremont and Martinez, Mt. View, at forward; Cook, Campbell at center; Thomas, Live Oak and Hocking, captain, Campbell, at the guard positions.

Following is the record of the 130-lb. team:

130'S

Campbell	23	Mt. View	22
Campbell	32	Los Gatos	12
Campbell	32	Fremont	12
Campbell	17	Live Oak	8
Campbell	15	Santa Clara	8
Campbell	25	Los Gatos	14
Campbell	27	Mt. View	15
Campbell	26	Fremont	7
Campbell	20	Live Oak	22
Campbell	28	Santa Clara	13
Total Campbell	245	Opponents	133

That gives Campbell a league record of 9 wins and 1 loss. In the outside games Campbell won from San Jose and Bellarmine. The squad was composed of Captain DeSelle, Joe Condensa, Bloom, Hall Marrone, and Brydon, forwards; Hugh Cramer, T. Knopf, and Lobrovich, centers; Jerry Condensa, Mattush, Fellman, Fisci, Brooks, Lear, Halley, and James, guards. Bob Knopf was the manager.

This team was very clever and played a strong, heady game all the time. DeSelle, Joe Condensa, Fisci, Hall, Halley and Marrone will graduate this year and some of the others will move up to the unlimiteds, but there is a lot of good material coming up from the 120's so I believe they will keep up the good work next year.

Captain Melvin DeSelle, a clever floor man, accurate on shooting and a great passer, the real backbone of the team. He scored 84 points. Joe Condensa at the other forward was very fast and elusive and scored 90 points. Both of these forwards will be missed next year. Hugh Cramer was able to coontrol the tip most of the time, and scored 60 points and played a good, heady game all the time. He was out of several games with a sprained ankle but Lobrovich and Hall filled in very nicely. Jerry Condensa was all that any coach could wish for in a running guard; fast, agressive, and followed the ball. Mattush at the other guard played a strictly defensive game; was good at taking the ball off of the backboard and was never caught out of position. With apologies to all the other teams, in choosing an "all-star team," I would be forced to take the Campbell team intact. Larry Quetano of Santa Clara was an outstanding player and would have looked good on any team.

PLEA OF GUILTY HALTS FIRST JURY TRIAL, CAMPBELL

Campbell, and Judge John J. Blaine, were all prepared for the first jury trial in the history of Campbell courts, but it didn't come off, for Louis Nogovan, 43, Campbell laborer, changed his mind and pleaded guilty to charges of wife-beating. He received a 90-day suspension of sentence by Judge Blaine, Monday morning.

Nogovan was arrested by Constable Frank Coupland and Deputy Harry Evans Thursday night on a warrant issued by Judge John J. Blaine on the complaint of Nogovan's wife. He pleaded not guilty Friday morning and was lodged in the county jail.

Local Firemen Attend Meet At Sunnyvale

Local fire department officials, including Ed Genasci, fire chief; Frank Coupland, assistant chief; Tony Ferro captain, and Henry Coad, E. G. Lanz, and Walter Street, attended the meeting of the Santa Clara County Firemen's association in the Sunnyvale civic auditorium this week.

Organization of the fire colleges in two zones of Santa Clara county was undertaken at the meeting; J. S. Baker, of the state department of vocational training and instruction, will direct these colleges, at which latest scientific methods of fire fighting and life saving will be given the firemen at no cost to the public. Baker spoke at the meeting, emphasizing the need for trained men.

Palo Alto, Sunnyvale, Saratoga, Mountain View, and Campbell will comprise one of the zones for the fire college, while Willow Glen, Cottage Grove, Los Gatos, Morgan Hill, Santa Clara, and Gilroy will be in the other. San Jose has it own college.

Los Gatos fire officials invited the departments to hold their convention in the Gem City May 27 and 28.

SEEK TO ANNEX PART COOLEY DIST. TO JOE McKINNON'S

Campbell residents, led by the chamber of commerce under President Herbert M. Shadle, are discussing a move to have that part of Supervisor Cooley's district which adjoins Campbell annexed to district four, under Supervisor Joe McKinnon.

Dissatisfaction with the attitude of Cooley, who blocked the eight-year-long project of local citizens to extend West Campbell avenue through to Prospect road, caused the move. Cooley filed a report against the project at a meeting of the board of supervisors last Tuesday night, claiming that there were insufficient funds in his road district to purchase a right of way for the road.

Mr. and Mrs. James Relfe Celebrate Golden Wedding

Surrounded by children and grandchildren who travelled for many miles to attend the happy event, Mr. and Mrs. James Relfe, prominent Campbell residents, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Saturday at their home on North Central avenue.

The Relfe marriage took place March 11, 1883, in San Jose. Mrs. Relfe was the former Miss Lucy Loveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Loveland, and was born in Santa Clara county. Mr. Relfe, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Relfe, came to this valley with his parents from Missouri when just six months old.

Gathered around the family banquet table Saturday noon were Mr. and Mrs. Relfe's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Ehert, of Belleville, Ill., their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Willian Relfe, Belleville, Ill., their daughter, Mrs. Alfred Jarvis, Kansas City; their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Relfe of San Francisco; their son, James G. Relfe, Jr., Sunnyvale, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Anderson, Oakland; and their grandchildren, Miss June and Andrew Anderson, Oakland.

Other grandchildren of the happy couple are Miss Jewell Relfe, Sunnyvale, Mrs. King Ehert, Belleville, Ill., and Relfe Ehert, who is a student at the University of Illinois.

The Relfes held open house all Saturday afternoon and evening and over 70 friends from all over the valley and the bay region came to congratulate them and wish them continued happiness. Their home was a bower of golden beauty for dozens of bouquets of jonquils, roses, and violets were brought or wired by loving friends and relatives.

Sunnyvale Man Gets Mail Route

Walter Jensen of Sunnyvale was granted the contract for the star mail route which started Monday, succeeding the Peninsular railroad service, and which goes from San Jose to Campbell, Los Gatos, Saratoga, and Cupertino, and return, according to Postmaster Edward Vodden of Los Gatos.

The route supercedes a star route out of Campbell which was established when the Peninsular service was abandoned there last year. It totals 82 miles, with three round trips daily to Los Gatos.

Discussion of changes in mail routings resulting from the discontinuance of trains Nos. 33 and 34, the morning and evening trains between San Jose and Santa Cruz, occurred at a conference of Southern Pacific officials with Postmaster Vodden Monday and Tuesday.

The three groups of the Congregational women's guild will meet this Thursday, March 16, at 2 o'clock in the Congregational church, with group 3 entertaining. The ladies are asked to wear colonial or other old fashioned costumes or garments, if possible.

Current Comment

None, even the most confirmed optomist, who keeps up with world affairs through the newspapers and periodicals, can deny the fact that at present the world is in a state of flux, and that almost anything is apt to happen at any time. There is actual conflict between Japan and China, in the Orient, and between Bolivia and Paraguay, in South America, and additional trouble seems to be brewing between Colombia and Peru. The dogs of war are snarling and straining at the leash almost everywhere.

There are many danger spots in Europe, too. Germany is in a state of unrest seldom witnessed since the close of the World war. The suppression of the constitutional guaranties of liberty and freedom of the press, the burning of the Reichstag, and bloody riots everywhere tell the story of conditions. Trouble looms between Italy and Jugo-slavia, while Hungary is bound to Italy by an alliance. This might tempt Germany to take the plunge and then the world war would be starting all over again. The Polish corridor is a constant source of friction between Poland and Germany, and might easily start another world conflagration. Even from Soviet Russia, ruled by an iron hand, with its news carefully censored, we are able to learn that the peasants have again gone on a strike, refusing to grow grain, and thousands of persons have been forced from their homes by the government for refusing to go along with the Soviet plan. Cuba is seething with revolt, and conditions are said to be very serious on the island.

In the United States we have our troubles, too, but up to this time they have been economic and not political. Our country has been as hard hit by the depression as most others. We have seen only recently our banking system fail to function to the great detriment of business everywhere. But Americans can "take it on the chin" and stand up under it. For this reason we have had few riots and no attempt at revolution. Everybody is hoping for better things soon, and feels that it is only sporting to give the new administration a break.

A broad view of the world picture, and the comparative peace in the United States so far as bloodshed and violence are concerned, will bring anyone but the most avowed internationalist to the conclusion that it is Uncle Sam's duty to stay away from foreign commitments as far as possible, and to work out the economic salvation of his own people. This does not mean, of course, that we should fail to cooperate in any sound and constructive effort to restore normal conditions. But it does mean that we ought not sacrifice legitimate American interests for the benefit of Europe and a few of our own internationalists. Nor does it mean that we ought to join in a world-wide declaration of embargoes or economic boycotts against some nation whose political course in the world does not meet with our entire approval. The best way to keep out of trouble is to stay at home and mind one's own business.It is a sure guess that we will not restore normal conditions at home unless we keep out of trouble abroad.

Supervisors In Convention Oppose Recommendations Of Senate Committee

Sacramento, March 15—Recommendations of the senate fact finding committee for abolition of the state bureau of contractors' registration and the state department of social welfare were vigorously opposed in a resolution adopted by the California County Supervisors association, in convention here.

The 234 supervisors also went on record as opposing repeal of the state barbers' act and abolition of the state department of professional and vocational standards.

Introduced by Supervisor John R. Quinn, Los Angeles county, and Supervisor Tom Hurley, San Diego county, the resolutions were approved by the 234 delegates at the closing session today without a dissenting vote.

Pointing out that the contractors' bureau, and the barber board, as well as the entire department of professional and vocational standards were entirely self-supporting, the resolutions declared that repeal of these units of government would "in no way, shape or form, aid in the solution of the state's financial problem, and would constitute false economy."

"We are unalterably opposed to the repeal or weakening of these laws," the resolution stated.

Abolition of the contractors' act, which has enabled the state to weed out irresponsible and crooked contractors and prevent racketeering in the construction industry is being sought in senate bill 83 by Senator R. R. Ingels, Ukiah. Assemblyman James O'Connor, Los Angeles is author of bills to repeal the barber law and the department of professional and vocational standards.

Monday, March 20, the Country Woman's club will enjoy a drama program in charge of the following committee: Mesdames T. A. Cutting, G. E. Jeffers, Ray Wood, C. B. Field, and F. R. Anderson.

In writing the report of the last meeting the name of Mrs. L. C. Shank was very unintentionally ommitted from the names of the committee who made the garden day such a success. Mrs. Shank was the gracious hostess of the afternoon, doing double duty, since Mrs. L. T. Lenox, who now resides in Palo Alto, was unable to be present.

... PROVE THAT YOUR HOME NEEDS "ON TAP SERVICE" OF Automatic Hot Water

FOUR to six hours a week are lost in the average home in waiting for slow water heaters to function. Striking a match, lighting a heater, waiting and "patting the tank" is part of this wasted time which was family custom until a few years ago.

Prove this to yourself. Add up this wasted time given to waiting and "tank patting." Then consider the time lost in the kitchen, the workshop of the home, because of slow service of hot water. Surely the modern method of on-tap hot water service from an Automatic Gas Water Heater should be in your home. Yes, and best of all, an Automatic gives instant hot water at a lower cost per gallon than your present method of heating water.

Since these Automatic Gas Water Heaters have a safety pilot as standard equipment they may be vented to any convenient flue. They can thus be quickly and easily installed with no inconvenience to you.

For the small down payment of as little as $4.85 you may have an Automatic Gas Water Heater completely installed in your home. Terms are as little as $3.85 a month. THE FARMERS CORNER

By Ralph H. Taylor

Farm real estate taxes in California, computed on an average per acre basis, have skyrocketed 194 per cent during the past 17 years—the largest increase in the agricultural tax load in any section of the United States.

That amazing revelation of the gravity of California agriculture's tax problem, which comes from the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics in an analysis of the national farm taxation crisis, deserves the earnest consideration of Californa legislators as they wrestle with the tax question.

Certainly it should command attention at a time when various proposals are at issue which would have the effect of still further increasing the crushing tax burden carried by agriculture.

Each succeeding study of the farm tax problem in recent months has served to emphasize two principal factors: 1. That the farmer is carrying an excessive and disproportionate share of the tax load, as compared with many other classes of taxpayers. 2.That agriculture cannot hope to rehabilate itself and get back on a paying basis until the tax load is lightened. Taxation has simply exceeded the ability of the land to pay.

And the analysis of the federal bureau demonstrates that in California the tax bill has been pyramided on the farmer to a greater extent than in any other area.

The average tax per acre in California, including vast acreages of low valuation, such as grazing lands, has been boosted from 39 cents, in 1913, to $1.13 in 1930, according to the federal survey.

But the report of the California Tax Research bureau, just recently completed, presents an even more accurate and challenging picture. Studying orchard and dairy farms and excluding pasture and other lands of low valuation, the tax research board found that the tax per acre during 1931 averaged $3.21. In many instances, with more valuable orchard acreages, the tax ran as high as $23 per acre, with crops from the land totally incapable of carrying the load.

The rate of increase in farm taxation in California, the federal study revealed, has been approximately twice as great as in neighboring states, Washington and Oregon, placing the California farmer at a heavy disadvantage in competitive markets.

The average tax per acre in Oregon, for 1930, was 40 cents, and in Washington 68 cents, compared to California's average of $1.13.

In light of these conditions, California legislators from rural districts will probably look askance at many of the schemes suggested of balancing the state budget which involve transfer of present state burdens to the counties, instead of actual reduction of costs.

Shifting of the load from the state to the local taxpayers for such services as dairy cattle and standardization inspection, for example, could have but one result—an increase in farm and other local taxes.

Similarly, the possibility of the state imposing an ad valorem, or direct property tax, to raise additional revenues, demands drastic action to prevent piling on of this additional farm burden.

Real estate taxation, in many instances, already has exceeded the capacity of the land to pay in California. There must be a lowering of this burden, rather than an increase, if agriculture is to survive.

Mrs. Rose Hanger Entertains Pundita Circle Wednesday

Mrs. Rose Hanger's charming home on the Los Gatos road was the meeting place of the Pundita circle last Wednesday afternoon. Assisting Mrs. Hanger were Mrs. Max E. Mumma and Mrs. Elias K. Clendening.

During the business meeting in the early part of the afternoon which was presided over by Mrs. D. Harold Cramer, president, Mrs. Louis J. Carboni and Mrs. Wendell Thomas were elected delegates to the annual meeting of the county federation of Women's clubs to be held in the San Jose Women's club house March 24. They, with Mrs. Cramer and Mrs. George W. Page, the latter a county officer in the federation, will represent the Pundita circle at the annual meeting.

An excellent paper on "Statesmanship" was read by Mrs. Clendening during the program hour. She gave character sketches of ex-Emperor Wilhelm of Germany, former Czar Nicholas of Russia, Cardinal Mercier of Belgium, Herbert C. Hoover, and Gustave Ador of the Red Cross in Switzerland.

Recent historical events were delineated by Mrs. Mumma, who read current events from various magazines and presented the names of the new president and his cabinet.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments during the social hour in the late afternoon. Daffodils, hyacinths and Chinese lilies were the dainty decoration in the Hanger home.

Grade Crossing Separation Would Cost 500 Million

Sacramento, March 15— It would cost California $500,000,000 to separate all grade crossings in the state which now menace the lives of the traveling public, according to a report given to the state legislature today by the state division of highways and the railroad commission.

The report was prepared for submission at this session at the request of the 1931 legislature and gives the estimated cost for crossings considered practical, and names those proposed crossings eliminated because of excessive costs.

All California grade crossings are classed into five groups, made in order of relative importance as to potential danger and hindrance to free traffic. More than 12,000 crossings are analyzed.

The report covers the various means by which crossing hazards may be reduced and gives the cost of separation of crossings in the various classifications. The total varies from forty to five hundred million dollars with an annual upkeep of from three to thirty millions.

Analysis of accident records reveals that during the past six years 64.7 per cent of the crossings in the state have been free from accidents and that only 7 per cent of the total highway fatalaties occur at grade crossings. The report also shows that the percentage of accidents on state highway crossings is considerably higher than for city or county crossings. There has been a consistent decrease in recent years in the number of accidents.

Copies of the report may be secured from the bureau of publications and documents at Sacramento for 55 cents each, postpaid.

Senate Bill No. 285 Threatens Pensions Of State Emplopees

San Francisco, March 15—Retirement salaries not only of the 42,000 school teachers of the state, but of all other municipal, county or state employes entitled to pensions, are threatened by senate bill No. 285 now pending before the senate committee on governmental efficiency at Sacramento, according to an unexpected interpretation of the bill made here today by Roy W. Cloud, state executive secretary of the California Teachers association. As drawn, the bill was planned to prevent retired public officials from accepting work from the state or any political subdivision thereof while drawing retirement pay.

But the effect of the bill, according to Cloud, would be to cause employees of all classifications, entitled to pension benefits, to lose ttheir positions automatically at the end of the term of years necessary to earn retirement, or else forfeit their retirement rights. Teachers, for instance, may be retired at the end of 30 years of service, policement and firement, in most communities, at the end of 25 years of service. The great majority of public employes, however, continue in service until retired for old age or disability.

By the provisions of the bill any person receiving "or entitled to receive" a pension would be forbidden to engage in any public work without relinquishing his pension or retirement salary.

"According to our legal department," said Cloud, "the phrase 'or entitled to receive' must be stricken from the bill if it is not to have the effect of prohibiting the employment or the continuing in employment of a person as a teacher, or other public employ entitled to retirement pay, if he either is receiving a retirement salary or pension from the state, or any political subdivision thereof, or even if he is entitled to osuch retirement salary.

"The bill, in its present form, would bring about the dismissal of any teacher who completes 30 years of service and who is entitled to receive either a state or local retirement salary by reason of his service. The same conditions of course apply to public employes no matter in what classification, who are entitled to pension benefits."

Hervey Voge, graduate student at the University of California and son of Mrs. Lilian R. Voge, spent the week-end with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Husted and family entertained a group of friends and relatives at their cottage on China Beach this weekend.

SAN FRANCISCO HOTEL INTRODUCES BARTER SYSTEM

San Francisco, March 15—Announcement was made today of what apparently is the very latest idea in the "back to barter" movement which is gaining headway throughout the the nation. C. E. Balin, manager of the Olympic hotel, made public the inauguration of a barter plan by which accommodations at his hotel will be exchanged for farm produce. "My idea is to encourage and help the farmers and ranchers who produce the nation's food products," said Balin, "by offering them this new and original plan of co-operation. Under this arrangement growers of food products can come to San Francisco for a holiday, shopping or business trip, without it costing them or their families one cent in cash for hotel rooms or meals, provided they are willing to exchange acceptable produce on the basis of our regular hotel rates. This hotel has 300 modern rooms and we will take care of as many responsible people as possible on this barter basis."

Balin said that the hotel expected to be able to dispose of the produce taken in exchange, either in their own dining rooms or through their connections. The Olympic's announcement is causing wide spread comment in hotel and business circles here and its development will be watched with interest, particularly by proponents of the barter or exchange idea. So far as is known, this is the first offer of the kind made by a hotel in America. The Olympic is one of the largest and newest of San Francisco's hotels.

P. B. PAYNE URGES VOTERS HEED NEAR SCHOOL ELECTION

To voters of C. U. H. S. district:

The latter part of this month there will be a school election to fill two vacancies on the school board. The terms of Mrs. Shelley and Mr. Mitchell expire, and it is the duty of every citizen who believes in not only the welfare of the school, but of the town and county as well, to select two citizens who have the welfare of the school at heart.

It is rumored around that if certain parties gain control of th school board they will endeavor to make radical changes which will be very detrimental to the district at this time.

It behooves us as citizens to work for the uplifting of the district instead of tearing down the work of years.

—P. B. Payne

Election of a fire commissioner for the Campbell fire district will be held April 3, as announced by the commissioners, Horace Lea, W. H. Stray, and E. C. Merrill.

Farm Cuts O.K. Ask Others To Curtail

San Francisco, March 15—The California Farm Bureau federation believes that the recommendations of the senate fact finding committee in the matter of proposed reductions for the state department of agriculture would, if adopted, create definite hardships on the farmer, but, notwithstanding this, the farm bureau recommends severe cuts in the interest of economy and urges that other departments accept equally drastic reductions.

This is the substance of a statement issued by the directors of the California Farm Bureau federation after an exhaustive study of the recommendations of the senate fact finding committee and the effect of these upon agriculture.

"The California Farm Bureau federation recognizes the financial crisis that is confronting the state," said Alex Johnson, executive secretary. "The farmers are prepared to get their house in order, but we feel it is only fair to ask other groups to be prepared to make equally large sacrifices.

"The suggested reductions to the department of agriculture will amount to about 25 per cent and in some instances the curtailment in government work will greatly embarrass producers of different commodities.

"However, our directors feel that the work of the senate fact finding committee should be commended and that other departments of the state should cooperate in effecting similar necessary economies. It is only by drastic action that the cost of government can be brought within the ability of the taxpayers to support."
